Sophomore Matt Daley made history last week with the first ever hole in one for the Duxbury High School golf team.

Daley made history on the third hole at the Duxbury Yacht Club against Middleboro. With a 6 over par of 42, Daley helped the Dragons to a 232-296 win.

"With the amount of talent that has played in both our boys' and girls' program it is amazing that this was our first hole in one," Athletic Director Thom Holdgate said. "However, Matt is part of one of the deepest golf teams we have ever assembled and this may be the first of many great things for this team in the next few years."

The hole in one is the first in a match in coach Jack Stoddard's 27-year coaching career.

Stoddard said Daley hit a 52-degree wedge into the third hole at about 130 yards.

"Matt DiRamio had a hole in one in a practice round at Stockbridge Country Club in the 90's," Stoddard said. "Matt Daley still owes everyone on the team a drink."
